World's Greatest Horseman Rules and Guidelines

1. Open to all breeds of horses of all ages regardless of show history. Horses must be shown in a bridle. This contest will consist of four go-rounds: herd work, reined work, steer stopping and cow work.
2. This contest will only have an Open division.
3. Entry fees, stall fees and other charges will be established annually and will be outlined on the entry form.
4. All payments made on or before the due date are final. In a Category 1 Special Event if entry payment is postmarked on or before the due date, the payment only may be refunded if written entry cancellation is received by the NRCHA office on or before the due date.
5. Late entries will be accepted with a late entry penalty as outlined on the entry form until noon the day before the class starts.
6. Horses will be shown in the same bridle throughout all phases. No tie downs are allowed. No wire, chain or other metal or rawhide device may be used in conjunction with the bit or a part of the leather chin strap. Leather chin strap must be flat, flexible and at least 1/2 inch wide. No metal rivets are allowed to come in contact with the chin, or chin groove of the horse. Metal keepers are not acceptable on the chin strap.
7. The traditional romal must be used. With romal reins, hand is to be around the reins in a closed fist thumbs up position with no fingers between the reins. In the herd work only, romal reins can be held on one hand. Roping reins are optional in the Steer Stopping.
8. The bit must conform to the NRCHA bit rules.
9. Bits will be checked after each go-round. A score of zero will be given for bloody mouth (inside) on the horse.
10. A rider may show only one horse. An owner may enter more than one horse provided there is a different rider for each entry.
11. Horse and rider must compete in all four go-rounds to qualify for go-round money unless the horse or rider is physically unable to compete.
12. There will be 10 finalists that will compete in the finals the last day of the contest. Finalists start with a clean slate, and must pay a $380 finals fee. If a tie advances more than the specified amount of finalists to be paid, the payout will be adjusted according to the number of horses in the finals, but the total payout will not change.
13. NRCHA Rules and Regulations will apply in all other instances.
